TEXAS COWBOYS

The University of Texas at Austin

Letter from the Selection Chair

Dear Potential Applicant,

For nearly a century, the Texas Cowboys has been an integral part of the University of Texas at Austin. Founded in 1922 to satisfy the need of a men's service organization, members have proudly provided the UT campus with leadership, character, spirit, and service.

Today, Texas Cowboys remains one of the oldest student organizations on campus and consists of men from all aspects of campus life. Texas Cowboys wear customized hat and chaps to symbolize the organization's rich history and dedication to service. Collectively, Texas Cowboys contribute over 3,000 hours of community service a year to the Austin community. The Cowboys have contributed not only time, but have also raised more than $300,000 to its philanthropy, The Arc of the Capital Area, through initiatives such as the Harvest Moon annual benefit concert and the Spring BBQ held on campus. The organization also hosts an education opportunity for the student body through the Texas Cowboys Lectureship Series. This past year, Shaun White, inspirational speaker and professional snowboarder who holds three Snowboarding Men's Halfpipe Olympic gold medals. In 1953, the organization's prominence reached new heights after being trusted to maintain and transport Smokey the Cannon. Smokey has appeared at countless charity and volunteer events across the country.

This Fall, we are looking to recruit 25 dedicated men to not only lead, but also serve. Each semester, a New Man Class is inducted into Texas Cowboys after successfully completing the application and interview process. Interested men are encouraged to submit an application, which will be read by the selection committee. Qualified applicants will be granted an interview with the Selection Committee, Texas Cowboys Foreman (President), alumni, and university representatives. After the interview, the New Man Class will be selected and inducted into Texas Cowboys.

We strongly encourage all interested applicants to attend the Texas Cowboys information session, as well as, other events on the recruitment schedule listed on the following pages. Our website texascowboys.org and our Facebook page are great resources for you to learn more about Texas Cowboys. Before you begin the application process, please be aware of the requirements listed on the following pages. For your convenience, you will find eligibility requirements, expectations, and an application guide. Please read the information very carefully and be sure to follow all instructions.

I will be available to all applicants throughout the application process. My contact information is below in the application guide; Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any questions or concerns about the recruitment process, the application, or what membership in Texas Cowboys entails. Again, we thank you for expressing interest in becoming a Texas Cowboy. We wish you the best of luck throughout the application process.

I look forward to seeing you give the best you have to Texas.

Hook 'em Horns,

Trevor Carr
